London: J. A. Novello, 69, Dean Street, Soho, & 24, Poultry.

John Reid, 55, Baker-street, Portman-square, has to dispose of, by Subscription of 220 Members, at One Guinea each, an elegant, richly carved, and gilt, Amboyna wood, exquisitely finished, Six-and-a-half Octave Grand Pianoforte, manufactured by Messrs. John Broadwood & Sons, at the cost of Four Hundred Guineas, for the Drawing Room, Windsor Castle, where it has been for upwards of two years, and from whence it has been removed in the course of business; it is considered the most chaste and elegant Pianoforte hitherto produced in England, both as regards quality of tone, delicacy of touch, and extreme elegance of design. You are respectfully invited to see the Pianoforte, at No. 55, Baker-street, Portman-square, where it will be on view until the list is filled up, when notice will be sent to each Subscriber the day and hour of distribution. Parties in the Country wishing to subscribe are requested to make their Post Office Orders payable Upper Baker-street.

Letter-Press Printing in every variety. J. ALFRED NOVELLO would respectfully announce, that having a carefully-organized Printing Office, he is enabled to execute orders for every variety of Letter-Press Printing; and he trusts he may safely point to the various works published by himself, during the last three years, as favourable specimens in that department; all these—the Cheap Oratorios, and other moveable music-type works, their covers, the large posting and other announcement bills, the "Musical Times," his catalogues, &c., having been the produce of his own press.

The unusual attention given at his Office to Moveable Music-types, and the beauty of the Music Founts, which belong exclusively to himself, secure to his patrons advantages in this particular branch which no other Printer can offer. His new Semi-Nonpariel Music-type is especially adapted for Thematique Catalogues or Indexes, from the boldness of its face and the smallness of the space it occupies.

Concert Announcements and Programmes are not only printed on the most reasonable terms, but J. A. N.'s establishment, as connected with music, offers particular facilities to concert givers. Specimens for Book-work, Color-printing, and the terms for every variety of Letter-press Printing, can be obtained at 69, Dean-street, Soho.

To be Published by Subscription, Price 15s.

Arrangements from the Full Scores of Handel, Beethoven, Mozart, Haydn, Graun, Schneider, &c., for the ORGAN. By William T. Best.

It is intended to include in this work several compositions which have not hitherto been arranged for the Organ; amongst many others may be mentioned, Beethoven's "Andante con moto," from the Symphony in C minor, the "Andante" from the Symphony in D; Handel's Choruses, "Wretched Lovers," "Let their celestial concerts," "I will sing unto the Lord," (The horse and his rider,) "He trusted in God," &c. Several movements from the Stringed Quartetts of Beethoven and Mozart have been expressly arranged; it is therefore hoped that nothing will be wanting to render the volume acceptable to those who study the Instrument with the view of employing its vast resources in a characteristic and legitimate manner.

Subscribers' Names received by W. T. Best, 23, West-Derby-street, Liverpool, and at the London Sacred Music Warehouses, 69, Dean-street, Soho, & 24, Poultry.

Monumental Edition, Completed.

St. Paul—an Oratorio, by Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy.

The best monument to the memory of a great man, is that which is erected by his own genius in the works he leaves behind him, and by which he continues to live in the estimation of his fellow men. As the most effectual contribution to this, his best monument, and to spread his fame as widely as possible, by enabling even the humblest admirer to possess his greatest work; it has been determined to publish a cheap copy of Mendelssohn's "St. Paul," similar to the admired editions of Handel and Haydn's Oratorios. Mr. Vincent Novello has kindly undertaken to revise the present Edition.

The 8vo. Edition of "St. Paul" is now completed, and may be had bound in Parchment Cloth, similar to the admired editions of Haydn's "Creation," and Handel's "Judas Maccabæus," and the "Messiah." Price 6s. 6d.

AT THE REDUCED PRICES.

This oratorio is published in the full folio-music size, 21s., and all the favorite songs, duets, and choruses, may be had singly, price 9d. to 1s. 6d. each. The orchestral and vocal parts are printed for choral societies. The overture and all the choruses are arranged for four hands, and the favorite choruses as solos for the organ.
